★★★★★ Keeps hair straight a really long time

Reviewer: Cindy from Newport Beach, CA 12/5/2007

I have been using this product and it works great for my hair. I actually spray the product into my hand before applying to my hair and then I blowdry with a really big round brush. My hair not only gets straight but stays straight for days without washing. I wake up and it is still straight if not straighter then the day I used it.

★★★★★ Great Product

Reviewer: Tiffany from Las Vegas, NV 10/6/2007

This is a great product. It works well on those stubborn waves that don't want to straighten out.

★★★★★ I'm Lovin It!

Reviewer: The new straight head from 2/5/2007

I was looking for a way to cut down my straightening time.. At first i used it the wrong way then i read the directions on this site... I barely have to straighten my hair. Which i great because i spend hours trying to get my hair straightend because its so wavey and poofy. I will always use this product!

★★★★★ Best Hair Straightening Product

Reviewer: Carmen from New York 12/21/2006

This is the best product I've purchased in a long time. It definitely does the job. You have to blow dry your hair but after that the hair stays straight. I haven't had this luck with a product in a very long time. I will definitely buy this again.

★★★★★ wonderful!!!!

Reviewer: tracie from 5/22/2006

After reading the first review, I bought this product; not only does it smell great, but it WORKS!! and your hair still feels touchable.

★★★★★ I love this product.

Reviewer: Christina from California. 5/17/2006

I bought this in hope of having my hair straight, since its naturally curly, this product works fabulous, stays straight the whole day, and smells good. I absolutley love this product.

★★★★★ Worked well

Reviewer: Suzi from 2/15/2008

This product is lightweight and easy to use. My hair is short and extremely coarse and curly. I think it helped a lot, giving it a much smoother surface. Just don't use too much of the product or your hair will gum up a bit. All in all it worked very nicely. Thank you TIGI

★★★★★ IM LOVING IT!!!!

Reviewer: Ali from San Diego 1/13/2007

This was my first time using any TIGI product, i wanted something that'll straighten my hair, so i decided on buying this product and its great!!! i was suprised that it actually worked, i have very thick hair especially wen i blow dry it gets very frizzy, but after i blow dry my hair now it feels straight and very much less friz. i have tried other things but it just left my hair feeling greasy and still frizzy, with Bed Head control freak extra extra straight it made my hair feel and smelling great. on the other hand, i flat iron my hair anyway and with this product it didnt completely straighten my hair like a board just like it said, but it cut off my straightening time alot, it ONLY took me 3 mins!! and i have long hair, with a really good flat iron lol. I think this product will work GREAT with girls already with semi straight hair, but with us girls with thick wavy/curly hair like mine..flat iron is another option while using the product.

BEAUTY: Hair Care

by kandyt220 | 22 Comments

➤ Haircare is very important to me...my hair is very long (almost waist length), damaged, and color treated. However, it's not always in my budget to spend a fortune caring for it.

This list is compiled of some products that I regularly use and love as well as some new ones that I am hoping to try. Some are bargains and others are pricy. All that matters is that they do their job and leave my hair looking great.

So I read about this brush in the November issue of Allure...it's supposed to be the closest thing to a Mason Pearson brush, which goes for $137!!!! I'll definitely have to pick this up on my next trip to Target for a tiny fraction of the price!
